Moving On Up!

After 22 years in Downtown Dallas, Culinaire's corporate headquarters is moving. Together with our off-premise catering division, Food Glorious Food, Culinaire will reside in our own building in a shaded enclave close to Love Field. "After renting office space, FGF's commissary, and various off-site storage locations for over two decades, we decided it made sense to consolidate into one location", states Richard Gussoni, CEO and Founder.

The new corporate office will be in two stories, with state-of-the-art collaborative work spaces as well as several conference areas and break rooms. The office interiors are both strikingly contemporary and thoughtfully appointed. Food Glorious Food now has a beautiful, custom designed kitchen, efficient storage mechanisms, two loading docks, and a smartly equipped central sales office complete with a tasting room.

All phone and fax numbers will be the same. Our new mailing address is:
