DALLAS-BASED CULINAIRE INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES ENHANCED NATIONWIDE EXPANSION IN 2015

Food and Beverage Service Corporation Acquires Nine New Contracts Including Six New Museums

DALLAS (February 1, 2016) – Food and beverage service provider and dining/hospitality management corporation Culinaire International had a record-breaking business development year in 2015 acquiring nine new contracts across the United States. Of these, six were museum space - an area in which the company specializes and has developed a tremendous following. Founded in 1994, Culinaire manages food and beverage service for more than 40 accounts in 23 cities including 15 cultural institutions.

“We are very proud of our team and their commitment to growth in 2015,” said David Wood, Culinaire’s senior vice president of Sales and Marketing. “One of the main compliments we receive from our clients is that we are able to seamlessly adapt to their needs and deliver customized food and beverage services to their organization and clientele.”

Culinaire’s new accounts for 2015 included: Embassy Suites in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, as well as its new restaurant The Side by Side; Museum of Contemporary Art Chicago and its MCA Café; Gastonia Conference Center in Charlotte, North Carolina; Carnegie Museums of Pittsburg including Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum; Maison Jardin in Altamonte Springs, Florida; and The Walker Art Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota.
